

Progress Report #1
EMS-Based Community Health Services Pilot Program
October 2011

OBJECTIVE	STRATEGY	ACTIVITIES (07/01/11 – 09/30/11)
Reduce non-emergency, diabetes, stroke and falls in elderly calls to 911 to Putnam County Fire & EMS	Create an EMS-based community health service pilot program in Putnam County, Florida that educates clients on medication management and proper use of emergency services, and screens residents for falls, diabetes and hypertension/stroke risk.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Visited and interviewed Lake-Sumter EMS' Well-Check Program 2. Researched local health care resources, including elderly services, diabetes and stroke services 3. Researched local transportation and social services options 4. Developed strategy for program launch 5. Developed program and client log sheets 6. Identified initial list of potential clients 7. Designed and printed 911 bookmarks 8. Purchased basic office supplies 9. Ordered program supplies